Children of Persia — Suggested Actions

Action 1: LEARN MORE

Children of Persia is a 501(c)(3) organization headquartered in the Metropolitan Washington Area with an OFAC license to send humanitarian funds to Iran. Children of Persia is committed to improving the lives of children and their families. With a 100% volunteer team in the US and in Iran and a diversified mix of actions and funding, Children of Persia identifies and connects with organizations and NGOs inside and outside of Iran to provide hope, resources, and opportunities children need to achieve their dreams for the future. We fund and implement projects in education, health and medical services, family and community relief, orphan care, and disaster relief.

Cutting Through Rocks Film Director, Sara Khaki, and her sister interned with Children of Persia in the summer of 2007, working with the Street and Working Children's school project near Tehran, Iran.

Action 4: ATTEND EVENTS

Come join Zonta at its upcoming event, Climate Justice Forum on April 25, 2026: Zonta Says Now to Climate Justice. Hear from an inspiring panel of experts on how their work helps us understand the effects of climate change on women, girls, families, and our community. Meet leaders from local nonprofits and other organizations to learn more about ways to make a difference!
